

I am very worried about the consolidation of media ownership in this country. I know that such consolidation is a danger to democracy.

The airways belong to me and to all the other private individuals who make up this great country. You are our watchdog.

Media giant Sinclair Broadcasting has decided to compel their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary called "Stolen Honor" just days before the election. But they have failed to commit to airing a Pro-Kerry documentary such as "Going Up River" in the interest of balance. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Please show us that the FCC is not a sock puppet of this administration or other entrenched interests. Tell Sinclair that they are obligated by law to serve the public interest. If they fail to do so, they deserve to lose their licenses.

We are watching you.
Please don't let us down.

Sincerely,

Judith A. McMillan
55 years old